

Ā'Ā I KA
'ŌLELO

Interactive Hawaiian
Language Curriculum

Aloha mai! ‘O wau ‘o Kumu Kahanuola Solatorio
a he kumu ‘ōlelo Hawai‘i au. Ua haku au i kēia mau ‘ōpa‘a ha‘awina i hiki iā‘oe ke a‘o i ka ‘ōlelo Hawai‘i iā‘oe iho. Hiki iā‘oe ke ho‘ohana i kēia mau ha‘awina e like me kou makemake, akā ‘o ka mea nui, e ho‘ā‘o ‘oe e ‘a‘a i ka ‘ōlelo Hawai‘i i kēlā me kēia lā. Mahalo nui loa!

Greetings! My name is Kumu Kahanuola Solatorio and I am a Hawaiian language teacher. I created these curriculum units so that you can teach yourself the Hawaiian language. You can use these lessons however you please, but the main goal is that you try to speak Hawaiian each and everyday. Thank you very much!

How-to-Use Guide:

1. Answer the guiding question at the beginning of this unit
2. Explore the different lessons in this unit at your own pace
 - a. Type your answers in the text box prompts
 - b. Drag the vocabulary terms to the correct images
3. If you have a question, leave a comment in the Google class comments and Kumu Kahanuola will respond
4. When you complete this unit, review what you have learned by typing the new concepts gained from this 'ōpa'a

‘A ‘A I KA

‘ŌLELO

‘Ohana

‘Ohana (Family)

Type your answer to the following question in the text box below

What does the word “ohana” mean to you?

Type your answer here

*‘Ike aku, ‘ike mai, kōkua aku, kōkua mai, pela iho la ka nohona ‘ohana
Recognize and be recognized, help and be helped; such is family life*

Ka 'Ohana (Family)

Drag and drop the family terms on the left to the matching pictures below.
(If you need help translating, use a dictionary or visit www.wehewehe.org)

Ke
Kaikamahine

Ke Keikikāne

Ke Kupunahine

Ke
Kupunakāne

Ka Makuahine

Ka
Makuakāne

Ka 'Ohana

Ka Pēpē

Nā Mākua (Parents)

Type your answer to the following question in the text box below

What are some lessons that your parents have taught you?

Type your answer here

*Ka 'ike a ka makua, he hei na ke keiki.
The knowledge of the parent is absorbed by the child*

Makuakāne (Father)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou makuakāne?

Who is your father?

‘O

Type your answer here

ko‘u makuakāne

My father is (father's name)

Makuahine (Mother)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou makuahine?

Who is your mother?

‘O ko‘u makuahine

My mother is (mother's name)

Nā Mākua (Parents)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou mau mākua?

Who are your parents?

‘O

Type father's name here

lāua ‘o

Type mother's name here

ko‘u mau mākua

My parents are (father's name) and (mother's name)

Nā Kūpuna (Ancestors)

Find and insert some pictures of your kūpuna in the box below

KUPUNAKĀNE
Grandfather

KUPUNAHINE
Grandmother

Insert your images here

He lei 'āī 'oe na ke kūpuna
You are an adornment for your grandparents

Kupunakāne (Grandfather)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou kupunakāne?

Who is your grandfather?

‘O ko‘u kupunakāne

My grandfather is (grandfather's name)

Kupunahine (Grandmother)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou kupunahine?

Who is your grandmother?

‘O ko‘u kupunahine

My grandmother is (grandmother's name)

Nā Kūpuna (Grandparents)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou mau kūpuna ma ka
‘ao‘ao o kou makuakāne?

Who are your grandparents on your father's side?

‘O lāua ‘o ko‘u
mau kūpuna ma ka ‘ao‘ao o ko‘u makuakāne

My paternal grandparents are (GF's name) and (GM's name)

Nā Kūpuna (Grandparents)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and answering the question to work on your pronunciation.

‘O wai kou mau kūpuna ma ka
‘ao‘ao o kou makuahine?

Who are your grandparents on your mother's side?

‘O lāua ‘o ko‘u
mau kūpuna ma ka ‘ao‘ao o ko‘u makuahine

My maternal grandparents are (GF's name) and (GM's name)

Nā Keiki (Children)

Find and insert some pictures of your siblings in the box below

AIA 'EKOLU MAU KEIKI

MA KO'U 'OHANA

There are three children
in my family

Insert your images here

I maika'i ke kalo i ka 'ohā

The goodness of the taro is judged by the young plant it produces

Nā Keiki (Children)

Practice saying the sibling terms on the left in Hawaiian

Kaikuaʻana

Older sibling of same gender

Kaikaina

Younger sibling of same gender

Kaikuahine

Sister of a boy

Kaikunāne

Brother of a girl

Nā Keiki (Children)

Type your sibling's names in the text boxes below

‘O wai kou (mau) kaikua‘ana?

Who are your older
siblings of same gender?

Type your answer here

‘O wai kou (mau) kaikaina?

Who are your younger
siblings of same gender?

Type your answer here

‘O wai kou (mau) kaikuahine?

Who are your sisters (of boy)?

Type your answer here

‘O wai kou (mau) kaikunāne?

Who are your brothers (of a girl)?

Type your answer here

Mo'okū'auhau (Genealogy)

Watch the video: "Mo'okū'auhau (Kumukahi)"

Mo'okū'auhau (Genealogy)

Type your answer to the following question in the text box below

Why is it important to know your genealogy?

Type your answer here

*Na wai ke kupu o 'oe?
Whose sprout are you?*

* IF YOU NEED TO,
WRITE IT DOWN FIRST

TAG YOUR KŪPUNA
TAG @ehoopilimai

Mo'okū'auhau (Genealogy)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and saying your genealogy to work on your pronunciation.

‘O

Paternal Grandfather's name

ke kāne

(Paternal Grandfather's name) is the male

‘O

Paternal Grandmother's name

ka wahine

(Paternal Grandmother's name) is the female

Ua noho pū lāua a hānau ‘ia ‘o

Father's name

he kāne

They lived together and (Father's name) was born, a male

Mo'okū'auhau (Genealogy)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and saying your genealogy to work on your pronunciation.

‘O

Maternal Grandfather's name

ke kāne

(Maternal Grandfather's name) is the male

‘O

Maternal Grandmother's name

ka wahine

(Maternal Grandmother's name) is the female

Ua noho pū lāua a hānau ‘ia ‘o he wahine

They lived together and (Mother's name) was born, a female

Mo‘okū‘auhau (Genealogy)

Type your answer in the text box below. Then, practice asking and saying your genealogy to work on your pronunciation.

‘O

Father’s name

ke kāne

(Father’s name) is the male

‘O

Mother’s name

ka wahine

(Mother’s name) is the female

Ua noho pū lāua a hānau ‘ia au, ‘o au ‘o

Your name

They lived together and I was born, I am (Your name)

Record yourself saying your “Mo‘okū‘auhau” on Flipgrid by clicking
on the link:

<https://flipgrid.com/31113322>

Ho'oma'ama'a (Review)

Type your answer to the following question in the text box below

What new concepts did you learn in this unit?

Type your answer here

'A'Ā I KA
'ŌLELO

E ola ka 'ōlelo Hawai'i
Long live the Hawaiian language